Road Map for making the College Campus Plastic Free

Mar-19	1. Waste Auditing - gathering, assessing and presenting data on waste generated in campus on daily basis 2. Proposing the theme ' Plastic free Campus' for the College Day	* will help us to identify and troubleshoot the major waste streams in our campus, from office bins to campus dumpsters * brining awareness among the students and staff about the effects of using plastic on the environment and thereby motivating them to reduce the usage of disposable plastic
Apr-19	Collaborating with Departments on Campus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - dining service workers or food service provider representative: chefs, servers, cafe managers - campus waste management service staff - custodial staff - Procurement Department staff - student groups working for campus - professors, faculty, provosts, department chairs - community members that may be affected 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -having a signature on a petition from all the community members. agreeing to support our initiative or campaign, can go a long way - Have leaders & members ask professors to present the campaign in classes and pass around petitions for students to sign -Table in major areas on campus like outside of the dining hall or the library -Pass the petition along via email, and ask others to pass it along too -Target the entrances and exits of major events to gather petition signatures -Social media like Face Book, Whatsapp, Twitter
May-19	Encouraging individual behavior change for single-use plastic consumption	Freedom from plastic should include all plastic items that would normally be disposed of after one use. This includes (but is not limited to) beverages in plastic bottles, items in plastic wrap or plastic containers, utensils, cups and lids, straws, stirrers, bags, and any disposable polystyrene products.
Jun-19	Encouraging Reusable Items	* Post maps and signs around the campus highlighting existing water fountains for students to refill reusable drink containers at no cost * Encourage students to bring their own reusable items, such as tupperware or a lunchbox
Jul-19	Decreasing campus-wide procurement and consumption of non-recyclable plastics	Consider a balance between strategies related to procurement and targeted initiatives and campaigns to rapidly decrease use of disposable plastics
Aug-19	Recruit new volunteers and student groups to join in plastic-free initiatives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Frame initiatives in a positive light, through fun and interactive activities - Extend initiatives beyond everyday campus operations 	Events are a fun and inclusive way of extending the university's plastic-free initiatives to a larger audience. Conduct Events / activities to attract new volunteers to join the initiative

Sep-19	Work with event planners to brainstorm procurement alternatives to purchasing single-use plastic materials and supplies. Brand these events as plastic-free in your invites, and make it explicit at the event itself.	Connect with student clubs, groups and individuals coordinating events so they can join in and help cultivate a plastic-free culture.
Oct-19	Procurement Decisions to make the campus free from single-use plastic.	Coordinate plastic-free purchasing by communicating with the caterer or food service provider that there should be no single-use plastic packaging for the food. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Buy in bulk or opt for food and materials that are packaged in paper as long as you have the ability to compost or recycle the material. • Serve beverages fountain-style or out of pitcher. • Provide reusable cutlery and serving utensils. • Opt for reusable decorations, like cloth table covers or woven placemats, or consult the art or theatre department for old set pieces (any plastic decor should be reused for future events). • In your event invites, encourage guests to bring their own reusable water bottles and coffee mugs. • If it is a picnic type event, attendees can even bring their own plates, bowls and utensil.
Nov-19	Increasing recycling participation
Dec-19	Using the Word "Ban"	a ban prohibits a product or material from being purchased, sold, or used on campus. Once incorporated into campus policy through a ban, plastic-free initiatives will have more strength and stability. All campus vendors and contractors must abide by the language of the ban.
