Our College had organized a Seminar/Lecture Talk on "Energy for women" on 26.08.2015 in our college campus. Around 40 students participated and benefited by the event.

The speaker addressed "Engineer's Day is a significant occasion considering the fact that India produces close to 20 lakh engineers in a year. The year 2018 will mark the 50th anniversary of the Engineers Day in India. Visvesvaraya was not only known for his contributions in the field of engineering but was also called the "precursor of economic planning in India", according to the Institution of Engineers India (IEI). Sir Visvesvaraya was an acclaimed engineer recognized for his mastermind in harnessing water resources. He had successfully designed and constructed several river dams, bridges and revolutionized the irrigation system in India by implementing irrigation and drinking water system. Sir Visvesvaraya was born on September 15, 1861, to Srinivasa Sastry and Venkachamma at Muddenahalli village in Kolar district of Karnataka. He completed BA with distinction from Central College of Bangalore and Civil Engineering from College of Engineering, Pune, in 1881 and 1883, respectively. He began his career as an Assistant Engineer with Public Works Department (PWD) at Mumbai (then Bombay) in 1884 and was later requested to join the Indian Irrigation Commission. As a Public Works Department engineer, he accomplished several projects related to maintenance of public buildings, road construction and laying out city developments plans in several important towns.” The Speakers for the lectures was Dr. Vinay Kumar Yadav, Ph.D Research Scholar, IMS Engineering College Ghaziabadand

In this, lecture students learned about the various applications of Vehicle powered by solar panel. During the discussion, session participants interact with the speaker for clarification regarding their doubts. The overall Programme was very successful.
