Report on 69th Independence Day

15th August 2015

The 69th Independence Day was celebrated with patriotic fervour and gaiety in our college campus. The celebrations commenced with the customary unfurling of the national flag followed by the National Anthem. The students chanted the state Anthem and few patriotic songs.

Our honourable dignitaries, Dr. B. Shadaksharappa Vice Principal of SSEC shared the real mean of justice, equality, liberty, republic, democracy and secularism, Mrs. Komala.G, Principal, SSPUC, motivated the students to initiate the change they wish to bring with a sense of responsibility and awareness towards their rights; & Mr.Maheshwar, (Manager, Trust Office) made the ceremony more pleasure with their presence. Cultural programs were performed energetically by the students. Some students spoke on the lives of various freedom fighters.

The celebration ended with Vote of Thanks by Ms.Monika from II PCMB.

Yours faithfully
