I am pleased to submit the report on the One-Day Workshop on Hands-On Machine Design, which was successfully conducted on Monday, 10th February 2025, at 8:30 AM at Atria Institute of Technology. The workshop provided an excellent platform for faculty and students to gain hands-on experience and practical insights into machine design.

We were privileged to have Dr. K. Balaveera Reddy, a distinguished expert and dynamic leader, who led the hands-on sessions, sharing valuable knowledge and practical expertise. Additionally, Dr. T. N. Sreenivasa, Registrar, VTU, and Dr. Basava Kumar K. G., Research Dean, VTU, graced the occasion and shared their insights on recent advancements in mechanical engineering and industry-academia collaboration.

As faculty members of the Department of Mechanical Engineering, I, Dr. Madhu B, along with Prof. Rajesh Kumar N, attended the workshop and actively participated in the sessions. The event was highly informative and beneficial, providing new perspectives that can be applied in our academic and research activities.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity to attend this valuable program and look forward to implementing the learnings for the benefit of our students and institution.
