

REPORT ON PLASTIC DRIVE AND VOLUNTEERING AT DABGULI FAIR-15.02.2025

The Kenneth Anderson Club-KANS CLUB, HOSUR and Nature & Wildlife club members organized and conducted plastic eradication drive and mandated to keep the environment clean and tidy on the fair at temple called Hollakare Dabbaguleswara (Basaveshwara Swamy) that is revered by the people of the surrounding villages. And it is this temple that lends its name to this offbeat destination, which is called Dabbaguli (or Dabbagauli), which is actually located in Tamil Nadu. The temple is on the banks of the Cauvery river right inside this wildlife sanctuary.

On the Day of fair which is the lord will be worshipped over night and people throng from nearby villages and to maintain the cauvery bank free of one time plastic the volunteers ensured the responsible disposal of used plastic bags, cups and other plastic utensils. The members also helped the people to understand the social responsibility, the health of public, soil fertility, the water contamination and the effect on wildlife in forest.

The fair was organized on the cauvery banks of the temple on commencing 15th feb 2025 to 16th feb 2025. The following N & W club members joined hands in maintaining the scenic beauty and cleanliness of cauvery banks on both the days. The enthusiastic members listed below participated along with KANS club members.
