A Report on “A session on UPSC unveiled: Insights and Strategies”

The Higher education Cell of the institution organized a session for the III year students titled “UPSC unveiled: Insights and Strategies” on 10.03.2025 from 11. 30 AM to 12.50 PM at Seminar Hall. The main idea of the program is to create awareness about UPSC examination and various opportunities in PSU. The Higher Education cell coordinator, Assistant Professor in Department of Science and Humanities, Dr. Suvodip Mukherjee, welcomed the students for this session.

The resource person for the program was Mr. Sagar, founder of Legacy IAS Academy, a successful coaching institute for UPSC/IAS aspirants in Bangalore. As a senior mentor, he has helped over 150 students achieve their dreams of becoming civil servants.

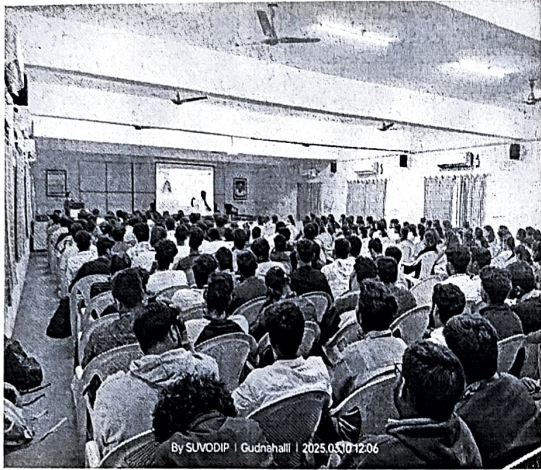

He is a highly educated and accomplished individual. He graduated with a degree in Mechanical Engineering, and later pursued a postgraduate degree in Psychology. His expertise in this field was evident when he appeared for the UPSC interview, where he chose Psychology as his optional subject.

In addition to his professional accomplishments, Mr. Sagar is also an avid reader with a keen interest in the Indian economy, ethics, and psychology. His command of the English language is impressive, and he has been compared to renowned vocabulary expert Shashi Tharoor by his colleagues.

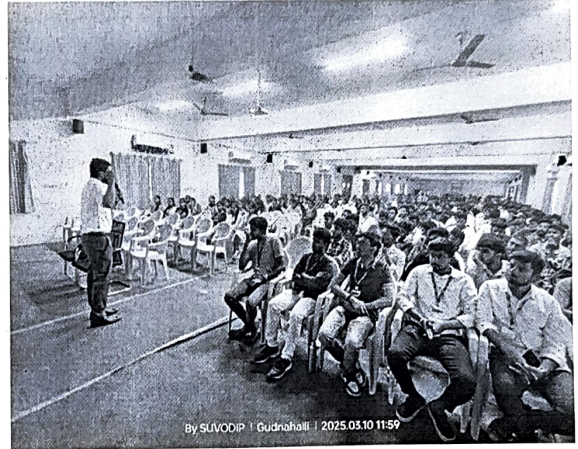

Mr. Sagar briefed about Overview of UPSC, History and role of UPSC in India, different types of examinations conducted by UPSC, Understanding the Civil Services Examination, Eligibility criteria and exam stages (Prelims, Mains, Interview), Syllabus breakdown and subject selection; Preparation Strategies, Recommended books and online resources; Time management techniques and study plans.

Students had the opportunity to interact with expert and to clarify their doubts.

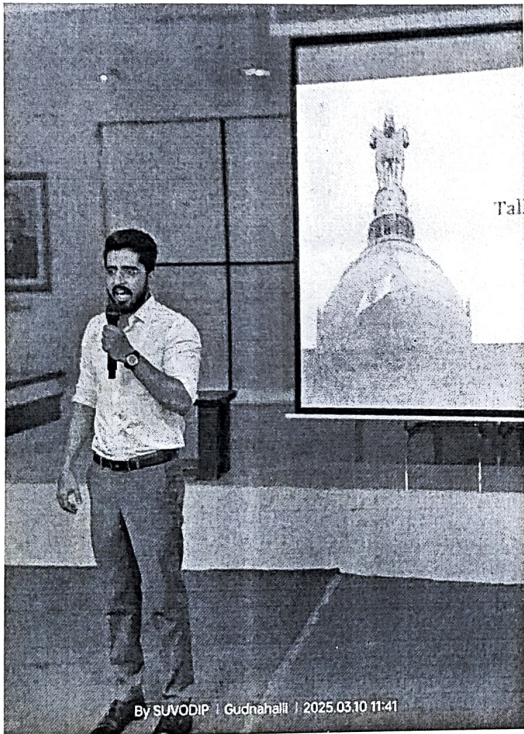

The UPSC Awareness Program was highly successful in enlightening students about the examination process and inspiring them to consider a career in public administration.
